Tate's Bake Shop: Baking for Friends

Over 120 scrumptious recipes from Southampton's favorite baker

by Kathleen King

“ Kathleen King is beloved in the Hamptons for her glorious bakery filled with earthy, scrumptious treats. This book invites us into her kitchen to learn the secrets that make Tate's Bake Shop so special. Kathleen understands that the pleasure is not just about creating amazing desserts but it's also about sharing them with people you love. ”

- INA GARTEN

“ I don't do a lot of baking, that's why I am such a fan of Tate's. My husband's favorite sweet treat is the Whole Wheat Dark Chocolate cookies. Tate's is great. I'm going to try my hand at a couple of these recipes, probably be too embarrassed to take a photo of them. I'll try, though! ”

- RACHAEL RAY

NEW YORK, NY – Called “a destination ... worth putting miles on the odometer” by The New York Times, Tate's Bake Shop in Southampton, NY prides itself on baking delectable home-style desserts. Kathleen King, creator and owner of the nationally acclaimed bakery, began her career at age eleven, selling her all-natural baked goods off of a card table on her family's farm. Now, Kathleen's famous handcrafted treats are distributed in retail stores nationwide and have earned the praise of the most celebrated voices in the food industry.

BAKING FOR FRIENDS (September 25, 2012; hardcover; 208 pages) is Kathleen's highly anticipated 3rd baking book. Inspired by her desire to share the joy of gourmet baking, Kathleen's new book showcases incredible new recipes, features exclusive baking tips, and gives fans across the country a taste of the effortless style that makes Kathleen King the Hamptons' most beloved baker.

Debuting over 120 recipes and 70 full-color photographs, BAKING FOR FRIENDS is the ideal go-to cookbook for beginning bakers and professionals alike. Featuring mouthwatering recipes perfect for both special occasions and everyday baking, chapters range from Muffins, Scones & Shortcakes to Pies, Tarts & Crisps; from Tea Loaves & Quick Breads, to Party Cakes & Cupcakes, to – of course – Cookies! Friends will come together over Kathleen's gourmet creations like Maple, Bacon, and Date Scones, Pumpkin Chocolate Chip Cookies and Guinness Brownies, as well as old favorites like Snickerdoodles and Super-Moist Chocolate Cake. BAKING FOR FRIENDS also offers delectable, taste-tested recipes for readers with dietary restrictions, including gluten-free, low-fat, vegan, and nut-free.

Each chapter also features Kathleen's innovative baking tips and tricks, designed to help save precious time and energy in the kitchen. "The key to successful baking," Kathleen says, "is just to enjoy it – don't fuss, don't stress, and don't try to make it 'perfect.'"

BAKING FOR FRIENDS is not just a collection of recipes; at its core, it's about sharing your joy and connecting with the people in your life. So let Kathleen welcome you into her kitchen in the Hamptons, and share in the bliss of gourmet baking. Enjoy.
