

15.8.13

Ellacomm the Israeli media company - going International

The communication and media company – Ellacomm owned by Ami Ella proceeding on with its expansion in the content word. Ellacomm is increasing its international activity with new deals and new content.

Ellacomm's international department, runs by Sapir Ella marked two significant deals freshly.

Ellacomm is one of the most experienced and innovative companies in the Israeli content world in the past 35 years, Ellacomm proven to be one of the leading content representative businesses in the Israeli market.

The company announced that the series 4X about Four best friends who get wild in a street-nonsense style and performing their wildest dreams right on screen, has been sold to several international companies and will be broadcast in more than 15 countries.

This October, in Mipcom Ellacomm will present new and exciting content package:

MAX AND MILLIE— a Russian speaking lively and joyful children series and BACK TO THE TOP— a brand new exciting sports format to the sports fan world.

http://www.ellacomm.com/